MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 80.

THE PROOF. -Some years ago, a Frenchman, who like many of his countrymen, had won a high rank among men of science, yet denied the God who is the Author of all science, was crossing the Great Sahara in company with an Arab guide. He noticed with a sneer that at certain times his gude, whenever obstacles might arise, put them all aside, and kneeling on the burning sand, called on his God. Day after day passed and the Arab never failed till at last, one evening, the philosopher, when he arose from his knees, asked, him with a contemptuous smile,-

"How do you know there is a God?" The guide fixed his burning eyes on the scoffer for a moment, in wonder, and then said sol-

"How do I know there is a God? How did I know that a man and a camel passed my hut last night in the darkness? Was it not the print of his foot in the sand? Even so,' and he pointed to the sun, whose last rays were countries winter comes in the summer, and then it is very pleasant. I wish winter came in summer in this country, which is the best government the sun ever shone upon. Then we sould go skating barefooted, and slide down hill in linen trowsers. We could snow-ball without getting our fingers cold—and men who go sleigh riding wouldn't have to stop at every tavern to warm, as they do now. It snows more in the winter than it does at any other season of the year.

TALUABLE MILL SEAT FOR SALE.

Pursuant to a decree of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county, rendered in the suit of E. O. Powell, &c., vs. Hunter, &c., at the June term, 1867, of said Court, the undersigned, as Commissioner, will, on MONDAY, the 20th day of April, 1868, that being Court Monday, offer, at public auction, to the highest bidder, in front of the Court House of said county, that valuable property known as "HUNTER'S MILL."

This property lies immediately on the A., L. & H. R. R., at which point there is a turnout, and contains 1381 acres of highly productive land. The mills, both grist and saw, were destroyed during the war, but as a mill seat it is regarded as the most valuable in Fairfax co., Knox & Wattles. the stream on which it is located affording water at all seasons of the year. This property being situated on the railroad, the productiveness of the land, and the valuable water privileges, render it altogether the most desirable property in market in Fairfax county. The entire tract will be sold subject to the right of dower of Mrs. Mary A. Hunter, to that portion which has been allotted her, and includes the Dwelling House. Her right can be bought on reasonable terms.

TERMS -- One-tenth of the purchase-money in hand, as a deposit, liable to be forfeited upon the purchaser failing to complete his purchase upon confirmation by the Court; the residue in toree equal payments, at six, twelve and eighteen months, with interest from the day of sale, to be secured by the notes of the purchaser, and a retention of the title until the last payment is made. Stamps and expenses of conveyance at the cost of the purchaser.
